THE LAST WISH.

It is related in the Biography of Wilson, the Ornithologist, that he expressed a wish, when conversing upon the subject of death, that when he died, he might be buried where the birds should come and sing over his grave.

In the wild forest-shade,
Under some spreading oak, or waving pine,
Or old elm, festooned with the gadding vine,
Let me be laid:
In this dim, lonely grot,
No foot, intrusive, will disturb my dust;
But o'er me, songs of the wild bird shall burst—
Cheering the spot.

Not amidst charnel stones,
Or coffins dark, and thick with ancient mould—
With tattered pall, and fringe of cankered gold,
May rest my bones:
But let the dewy rose,
The snow-drop and the violet lend perfume,
Above the spot, where in my grassy tomb,
I take repose.

Year after year,
Within the silver birch tree o'er me hung,
The chirping wren shall rear her callow young,
And the red robin, the green boughs among,
Shall build her dwelling near:
And ever, at the purple dawing of the day,
The lark shall chant a pealing song above,
And the shrill quail, when the eve grows dim and gray,
Shall pipe her hymn of love,

The black-bird and the thrush,
And golden oriole, shall flit around,
And waken, with a mellow gust of sound,
The forest's solemn hush.
Birds from the distant sea,
Shall sometimes thither flock, on snowy wings,
And soar above my dust in airy rings,
Singing a dirge to me!

FIRST IMPRESSIONS, OR NOTES BY THE WAY.

BY NATHANIEL P. WILLIS.

Cape Leucas, or Sappho's leap—Bay of Navarino, ancient Pylos—Modon—Coran's Bay—Cape St. Angelo—Isle of Cythera.

Cape Leucas on the lee—the scene of Sappho's leap. We have coursed down the long shore of ancient Leucadia, and the precipice to which lovers came from all parts of Greece for an oblivious plunge is shining in the sun, scarce a mile from the ship. The beautiful Grecian here sung her last song, and broke her lyre and died. The leap was not always so tragical, there are two lovers, at least, on record, (Maces of Buthrotum, and Cephalos, son of Deioneos,) who survived the fall, and were cured effectually by salt water.—It was a common resource in the days of Sappho, and Strabo says that they were accustomed to check their descent by tying birds and feathers to their arms. Females, he says, were generally killed by the rapidity of the fall, their frames being too slight to bear the shock; but the men seldom failed to come safe to shore.—The sex has not lost its advantages since the days of Phaon.

We have caught a glimpse of Ithaca through the iles, the land and which Ulysses loved, non quia larga, sed quia sua—the most natural of reasons. We lose Childe Harold's track here. He turned to the left into the Gulf Lepanto. We shall find him again at Athens. Missolonghi, where he died, lies about twenty or thirty miles on our lee, and it is one, of several places in the Gulf, that I regret to pass so near, unvisited.

Entering the Bay of Navarino. A picturesque and precipitous rock, filled with caves, nearly shuts the mouth of this ample harbor. We ran so close to it, that it might have been touched from the deck with a tandem whip. On a wild crag to the left, a small, white marble monument, with the earth still fresh about it, marks the grave of some victim of the late naval battle. The town and fortress, miserable heaps of dirty stone, lie in the curve of the southern shore. A French brig of war is at anchor in the port, and broad, barren hills, stretching far away on every side, complete the scene before us. We run up the harbor, and tack to stand out again, without going ashore. Not a soul is to be seen, and the bay seems the very sanctuary of silence. It is difficult to conceive, that but a year or two ago, the combined fleets of Europe, were thundering among these silent hills, and hundreds of human beings lying in their blood, whose bones are now whitening in the sea beneath. Our pilot was in the fight, on board an English frigate. He has pointed out to us the position of the different fleets, and among other particulars, he tells me, that when the Turkish ships were boarded, Greek sailors were found chained to the guns, who had been compelled, at the muzzle of the pistol, to fight against the cause of their country. Many of them must have perished in the vessels that were sunk.

Navarino was the scene of a great deal of fighting, during the late Greek revolution. It was invested, while in possession of the Turks, by two thousand Peloponnesians and a band of Ionians, and the garrison were reduced to such a state of starvation, as to eat their slippers. They surrendered at last, under promise that their lives should be spared; but the news of the massacre of the Greek patriarchs, and clergy, at Adrianople, was received at the moment, and the exasperated troops put their prisoners to death, without mercy.

The peaceful aspect of the place is better suited to its poetical associations. Navarino was the ancient Pylos, and it is here that Homer brings Telemachus in search of his father. He finds old Nestor and his sons sacrificing on the sea shore to Neptune, with nine altars, and at each five hundred men. I should think the modern town contained scarce a twentieth of this number.

Rounding the little fortified town of Modon, under full sail. It seems to be built on the level of the water, and nothing but its high wall and its towers are seen from the sea. This, too, has been a much contested place, and remained in possession of the Turks, till after the formation of the provisional government under Mavrocordato. It forms the south-western point of the Morea, and is a town of great antiquity. King Philip gained his first battle over the Athenians here, some thousands of years ago; and the brave old Miualis beat the Egyptian fleet in the same bay, without doubt, in a manner quite as deserving of as long a remembrance.—It is like a city of the dead—we cannot even see a sentinel on the wall.

Passed an hour in the mizen-chains with "the Corsair" in my hand, and "Coran's Bay" opening on the lee. With what exquisite pleasure one reads, when he can look off the page, and study the scene of the poet's fiction:—

"In Coran's Bay floats many a gally light,
Through Coran's lattices the lamps burn bright,
For Seyd, the Pacha, makes a feast to-night."

It is a small, deep bay, with a fortified town, on the western shore, crowned on the very edge of the sea, with a single, tall tower. A small aperture near the top helps to realize the Corsair's imprisonment, and his beautiful interview with Galnare:—

"In the high chamber of his highest tower,
Sat Conrad, fetter'd in the Pacha's power." etc.

The Pirate's Isle is said to have been Poros, and the original of the Corsair himself, a certain Huge Crevelier, who filled Ægean with terror, not many years ago.

Made the Cape St Angelo, the southern point of Peloponnesus, and soon after the Island of Cythera, near which Venus rose from the foam of the sea. We are now running northerly, along the coast of ancient Sparta. It is a mountainous country, bare and rocky, and looks as rude and hardy as the character of its ancient sons. I have been passing the glass in vain, along the coast, to find a tree. A small hermitage stands on the desolate extremity of the Cape, and a Greek monk, the pilot tells me, has lived there many years, who comes from his cell, and stands on the rock, with his arms outspread to bless the passing ship. I looked for him in vain.

A French man-of-war bore down upon us a few minutes ago, and saluted the commodore. He ran so close, that we could see the features of his officers on the poop. It is a noble sight at sea, a fine ship passing with all her canvass spread, with the added rapidity of your own course and hers. The peal of the guns in the midst of the solitary ocean, had a singular effect. The echo came back from the naked shores of Sparta, with a war-like sound, that might have stirred old Leonidas in his grave. The smoke rolled away on the wind, and the noble ship hoisted her royals once more, and went on her way. We are making for Napoli di Romania, with a summer breeze, and hope to drop anchor beneath its fortress, at sunset.

J. TENNEY, will continue the Housewright business at the old stand in Lindall street, and respectfully solicits a continuance of patronage.
G. L. OSGOOD, having relinquished his interest in the firm of OSGOOD & TENNEY, to Mr. J. TENNEY, would respectfully recommend him to the patronage of his friends and the public. tf may 6

CHELSEA HOUSE.
The Subscriber would inform his friends and the public generally, that he will continue to entertain them at the above establishment, and having made considerable improvement in and about the same, he hopes to merit a continuance of patronage from the numerous visitors of this pleasant and fashionable resort. Its location renders it a delightful residence for boarders, especially during the warm weather—and the convenience of its accommodations, the charming prospect from its observatory, and the cool and refreshing breezes that distinguish it in summer, render it a very pleasant retreat for those in pursuit of health or pleasure.
Every attention will be paid to those who may visit this establishment, and no pains spared to make it a pleasant and agreeable resort to such as may honor him with their patronage. JAMES BRIDE.

STONE HOUSE!
IN LOWELL.
This elegant Mansion is now open for the reception of Boarders and Strangers. The "Stone House" needs no recommendation to those who have formerly visited it. It stands on the southerly bank of the Merrimack River, about a quarter of a mile from the business part of the town of Lowell, fronting on the main road leading from Lowell westward, and having a Piazza in rear which immediately overlooks "Pawtucket Falls," and commands a delightful and extensive prospect up and down the River.
No situation in this country combines greater advantages for a Summer residence, or resort of parties of pleasure. To many it will be some recommendation at this season, that excellent Salmon are taken in the Falls at this place. The admirers of mechanical art and power will not forget its vicinity in the most important and interesting of the Manufacturing towns in New England. The lovers of natural scenery will remember its elevated, cool and commanding site, perfectly secluded from the noise and business of the town.
The subscriber has fitted up and furnished the House at a liberal expense, and relying upon considerable experience in his business, and the utmost care and attention, hopes to be able to sustain its former reputation and meet the reasonable expectation of all who may be pleased to favor it with their patronage. GEORGE W. LARRABEE.

NEWTON RAIL ROAD HOUSE.—NEWTON
The subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken that new House, where the Boston and Worcester Rail Road Cars stop, in Newton, formerly known as the "Newton House."—The house has been fitted and furnished in as good style, as any house of its class in the vicinity of Boston. The situation is pleasant, the prospect delightful, and the arrangement such as will be approved by an enlightened public.
The Larder will be constantly provided with the luxuries of the season, the Bar stocked with the choicest Wines, Liquors, &c.—and no pains nor expense will be spared to make the establishment an agreeable retreat for those who may favor it with their patronage.
N. B. Military, Fire and Social companies accommodated at short notice.
The Stables and outhouses are very commodious—being built expressly for the accommodation of the Team and Drover, who are invited to call—as they will find the best of attention.
☞ Persons coming in the Rail Road Cars, can have Breakfast at half past six o'clock, A. M.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT.—The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a number of years the spacious basement story of the new building recently erected, and known by the name of Codman's Buildings, in Wilson's Lane, on the westerly side of the United States Bank, a few feet from State street, which is fitted up in as good style as any of its class in the vicinity, and furnished throughout to correspond with the improved taste of the times, and will be opened this day for the reception of company.
It being the intention of the subscriber to furnish his friends and customers with every luxury which the market affords, (with the exception of ardent spirit,) and as he will superintend himself every branch of his business, he hopes his friends and the public will afford him that patronage which it is intended his establishment shall merit.
Gentlemen whose families remove out of town during the Summer months, will find it convenient to dine at the above establishment.
Refreshments from 5 o'clock, A. M. until 10 P. M. Hot dinners from 1 to 3. Soups every day.
june 14 Respectfully, &c. E. KENFIELD.

WESSONVILLE HOTEL.
The subscriber having taken the above mentioned long and well known establishment, formerly kept by Silas Wesson, Esq. which has undergone a thorough repair, and been newly furnished throughout, begs leave to inform the former customers, the present customers, and all who may hereafter favor him with their patronage, that his house will be well supplied with the dainties of the season, and that he will endeavor to be prepared at all times to accommodate those who may call upon him. His bar will be furnished with Choice Old Wines, Fruits, and other Refreshments.
The subscriber will be prepared to accommodate boarders for a short time, or for the season.
Carriages and Horses ready at the shortest notice, to convey stage passengers, boarders, and others. Stage passengers and others can be conveyed to and from the HOPKINTON SPRINGS, at any hour of the day—it being but a short distance, and a pleasant ride. Stages to and from Boston and New York, every day. Post Office kept at this place. Letters for boarders at the Springs, directed to this office, will be forwarded immediately. LUKE BEAL.
Wessonville, Westboro,' May 22, 1834.

MANSION HOUSE, MILK STREET.—The subscriber hereby informs his friends and the public, that he has taken this pleasant situation, and fitted it up for the accommodation of permanent boarders and transient company. Its location, he is sure, must render this House a delightful residence for boarders, especially during the warm months; and his most assiduous efforts will be directed to make their stay within it at all times, agreeable and happy. The house is entirely insulated, having a wide passage on each side, and a large open area behind, and near the business part of the city. Persons visiting the city on business, or in travelling, will find this an airy, healthy, and pleasant retreat while here; and all who favor it with their patronage, will, he trusts, be gratified with the conveniences which it affords.
The bar will be furnished with various kinds of refreshments, excepting ardent spirits. EBENEZER THOMPSON.

ADELPHI HOUSE.—The subscriber informs his friends and the public, that he has opened the commodious Tavern, corner of Ann and Cross streets, nearly opposite the Eastern Stage Offices, for the accommodation of regular and transient boarders. The House has been furnished with new furniture, bedding, &c.; is situated within thirty rods of Faneuil Hall Market, and in the centre of the commercial part to the city. He hopes that by devoting his whole attention to the comfort and convenience of his patrons, he shall receive a share of public patronage.

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1834.

STENOGRAPHIC GLIMPSES OF CONGRESS—No. 162.

Washington, June 7, 1834.—It gives me pleasure to assure you that the administration party lose nothing in the election of Mr Bell as their Speaker. His talents and integrity are alike unquestioned; or he would not have been supported, as he was, by many of the oldest and firmest friends of the administration, nor by the opposition. The ablest man on their side, Mr Wilde, of Georgia, received all the strength they could, or can unite, on any one. Mr Bell, for various reasons, had been silent and inactive during the session; and it was therefore supposed by the opposition, that he would favor them; but the fact, that Wr Wilde received their votes upon the early ballots, forbids the belief that he was their choice. They assisted, however, with some of his personal friends, in securing his election. All that they can say is, that they have asissted in electing an administration man, that was not the first choice of the administration party. Under other circumstances doubtless he would have been their first choice; but the persevering and arduous duties of Mr Polk, and the success with which he had acquitted himself of his duties, as Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, entitle him, in the opinion of his friends and the party, to the honor of the Speaker's Chair. One can perceive that even in discharging those duties, which should have entitled him to this honor, that he might very naturally have defeated his claim by exciting envy and rivalry.—He had won for himself no mean honors in the discharge of his duty; and it is not in our nature to be willing that one man should win all the honors, though we ourselves cannot hope to attain them. He must have necessarily disaffected some of the party in the discharge of his duty; and they would naturally console their feelings, by bestowing their honors upon a rival.—He who first makes the breach generally falls in it, and those who follow win the spoils of victory. Mr Polk has long manfully stood in the breach; and it is very naturally regretted by his personal friends, that he should have been passed over. He is, however, too high-minded to show any disaffection; and too honorable to neglect any duty, because he failed of honors: he will still give his untiring support to the party, and continue to receive the entire respect and confidence of the administration.

The Senate have, to-day, bestowed their "collective wisdom" on private (not public) "distress;" and sent some hopes of relief to numerous claimants, through these cabalistic characters, Be it enacted. Fridays and Saturdays are dull days here, except for memorialists and petitioners. Some times there is a little interest created for the audience, as well as the petitioners, especially when any thing comes up concerning Mi., for then one of the Senators, who "represents the State in part," pokes his nose into it.

The House have been engaged for two days on appropriations for the District of Columbia. Bills have been reported for some hundreds of thousands, I believe, for various improvements; but what their fate may be I know not. I think if they would report a bill for the appropriation of five thousand Yankees, to be disbursed in this district, it would benefit it more than the appropriation of as many million of dollars to be expended under any commissioner they have ever yet had here. The city has called on Congress to pay the interest on their Holland debt, about $60,000; and a proposition to pay the amount for three years annually, has occupied the House to-day. There were various speakers for and against it. Judge Sutherland advocated it very ably; and spoke at large upon the propriety and duty of making Washington, what the Father of his country intended it should be, the city of the Union, splendid and attractive; so that every American should be proud of it, and all be induced to visit it, and feel that they have a share in its honor and prosperity. As a Philadelphian, said he, I would furnish my part to rear it up as it ought to be built, a proud monument of our union and our glory. Are we called upon to bear a portion of its taxes for three years? Why it belongs to every State in the Union. You talk about raising a monument to Washington! the Hollander may come here and take possession of your city for its bankruptcy.

On Monday I expect we shall have an "exasperated" debate in the Senate, about concurring in the joint resolution for adjournment. I am inclined to think they will not go beyond the time indicated by the House.—The Kentucky election remains yet on the tapis. The Bank Report, I think, will not be acted on; there will be enough to occupy the three remaining weeks—and probably all will be anxious by that time to "shake the dust from off their feet," in testimony against prolonging the session.

REIS EFFENDI.

Policy of the Nationals.—The recent attempt to bring the militia into contempt and disrepute, made by the Nationals at New Haven, by parading a company in Harlequin dresses, and Col. Pluck armaments, is but in furtherance of a general plan of the aristocracy to disarm the people. We caution the democracy, the producing classes, not to be taken in by such trickery. A well armed militia is the greatest possible safeguard to public liberty, and the best barrier against the encroachments of aristocratic, monied, and arbitrary power. Those citizens, who wisely regard their own rights and their personal safety, will be careful to do nothing which will tend to run down the militia, or disarm the people. They should do all they can to perfect the system, and to make its burdens bear equally. The middling and working classes cannot too highly appreciate the importance of always keeping the militia well armed, and particularly at this time, when so many insidious, designed, and systematic efforts are made in certain quarters to bring it into disrepute and inefficiency.

O'Connell's description of a Whig.—The following extract from a speech made by the great Irish Apostle of Popular Rights, we commend to the special attention of those who have lately discarded the name of National Republican and assumed that of Whig:—

"The Whigs are a whining, whimpering, hypocritical set of KNAVES, who like saintly thieves at a field-preaching, turn up the whites of their eyes to heaven to induce others to look the same way, whilst they pick the pockets of the devout congregation."

A writer in the New York Times announces that as many as 6000 emigrants are expected to arrive in that port during the coming month, and recommend that rail road and other companies in want of laborers, send agents to that city to procure men, and conduct them to the places where their services are needed.

The New York Post, speaking of Miss Kemble's (Mrs Butler's) forthcoming book, says—"It is a sort of journal, we believe, of her residence in this country, and we have heard that it is full of lively remark and anecdote, and will prove a very readable book."

The last number of the Knickerbocker is filled with amusing and well written articles. We have placed upon our first page a beautiful piece of poetry, copied from it, written by Mr McLellan of this city.

Errata.—In the article headed the "The Times," published in yesterday's Post, in the 23d and 24th lines from the top, read wool and woollens, instead of wool lens and cottons.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE.

The Granite State is true to the mark—there is no faltering among her hardy yeomanry. On Friday last, Mr Gove, a member of the House of Representatives, introduced the following Resolutions, which will, no doubt, be adopted by both branches almost unanimously:—

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That we approve of the course of the Administration of the General Government, and that the President of the United States, by his ardent endeavors to restore the Constitution to its original purity, by his stern integrity and unbending firmness in resisting the approach of corruption in every Protean shape, in staying the lavish expenditure of the public money in an unconstitutional system of internal improvements by the national government, in settling the tariff on a more equitable basis, in his prompt resistance to all measures tending to the dissolution of our union, in his veto on the re-charter of that dangerous institution, the United States Bank, and in the unyielding stand which he has taken against the recent alarming proceedings of that institution, has proved himself to be a true disciple of Thomas Jefferson, the father of American Democracy, and has greatly increased the debt of gratitude due to him from the American people.

And be it further resolved, That in the removal of the late Secretary of the Treasury the President exercised a power conferred upon him by the constitution, and which has been recognized by all his predecessors in office; and which it was his duty to exercise if he believed that officer to be unworthy or incapable, or that he was pursuing measures detrimental to the interests of the public.

And be it further resolved, That in removing the deposites of public money from the Bank of the United States, the present Secretary of the Treasury, has violated neither the letter nor the spirit of the charter of the Bank, and has pursued a course the expediency of which, was clearly indicated by the decision of the people in the last Presidential election, against the re-charter of the Bank, and which was imperiously demanded by the profligate conduct of the officers of that institution.

And be it further resolved, That the Bank of the United States ought not to be re-chartered—that, unconstitutional in its creation—it has proved itself to be an Institution of the most deadly hostility to the principles republicanism, that we view with indignation its desperate struggles to obtain political power by a shameless and barefaced course of bribery and corruption, and that we witness with alarm the attempts made by its advocates to set at defiance the Representatives of the people, to veil its transactions in secrecy and darkness, and to justify proceedings which, should they be upheld, must end in subjecting the people of the United States to the dominion of a gigantic monied monopoly.

5. And be it further resolved, That the late Protest of the President of the United States against the extraordinary and unprecedented resolution of the Senate, pronouncing him guilty of a most flagrant offence, without either hearing or trial, was a measure justified by his personal right to vindicate his own character from unmerited reproach, and by his imperative official duty to defend the Executive branch of the government, while in his charge, from all intemperate assaults or unconstitutional encroachments, and that the Senate in passing such a resolution violated the first principles of ordinary justice and deliberately unfitted themselves for the proper discharge of those judicial duties, which by the Constitution, (if the charges in their resolution were true,) they were bound to believe the House of Representatives would soon invoke them to perform.

6. And be it further resolved, That our Senators in Congress be and they hereby are instructed to vote that the resolution passed by the Senate on the 28th day of March last, "that the President in the late Executive proceeding in relation to the public revenue, has assumed upon himself authority and power not conferred by the Constitution and laws, but in derogation of both," be expunged from the Journal of the Senate.

7. And be it further resolved, That we approve of the course of the Delegation from this State in the Congress of the United States, with the exception of that of the Hon. Samuel Bell.

8. And be it further resolved, That the Hon. Samuel Bell, since his election to the Senate of the United States, has pursued a course in defiance of the wishes of the people of New Hampshire, that he has long misrepresented and now misrepresents the opinion of a majority of his constituents, and that he be and hereby is requested to resign his seat agreeably to the solemn pledge heretofore made by him.

9. And be it further resolved, That the Secretary of State be and he hereby is directed to furnish a copy of these resolutions to the President and Vice President of the United States, and to each of the Heads of Departments, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each of our Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States.

Triumphant Victory!—Coalition Forces completely routed!—The election of Charter Officers for the village of Plattsburgh, N. Y., which took place this day, has resulted in a majority to the Republican ticket of Forty-seven Votes, over the combined forces of the Tory Wigs and supporters of Church and State measures. The village, heretofore, has generally given a majority for the federal ticket; and unusual exertions were made the present year, both by money and legal coercion, to insure a continuance of the old order of things. The result has, however, clearly demonstrated the patriotic feelings which govern our citizens, in the discharge of their political duties; and is good evidence of the fact that they will not be "bought like cattle in the market."—Plattsburgh Rep.

Mr Everett's argument regards the Bank, not as a contemptible corporation, but as a high and independent sovereignty;—yea, as sovereign as any nation on earth;—as a sort of thing to which domestic legislation does not apply, as a thing not to be overhauled and examined, with blunt republican familiarity, but as a thing to be treated and regarded with all the punctilio and etiquette which usually characterize the most solemn and fastidious diplomatic negociations, between sovereign and independent States. This is too insulting.—Dem.

A parallel.—The Investigating Committee of Congress found the room assigned for their use in the mother Bank, at Philadelphia, pre-occupied by the President and directors of the Great Monopoly.

The republicans of a town in France, "having appointed a meeting on a neighboring mountain, found it pre-occupied by Louis Phillippe's cavalry and infantry!"—Argus.

Emigration.—Annexed is the number of passengers arrived at New York since the 1st of January. In a parallel column we have placed the number arrived during the same months of 1833.—Jour. Com.

Sentences at the Municipal Court yesterday.—Eliza Stubbs—indicted at the May term for keeping a brothel—sentenced to pay a fine of $100, and costs of prosecution, taxed at $12—fine and costs paid. Benjamin F. Adams—for obtaining goods to the value of $103.67, of Tarbell & Stodder, under false pretences—a fine of $50 and costs. William Wise—for stealing articles of female clothing in a dwelling house belonging to Elijah Ernesti—1 day solitary, and 2 years in State Prison. Thomas Landighan (a boy of 14 years of age)—for an assault on a female child of six years of age—5 days solitary, and 5 years in House of Correction.

POLICE COURT.

A Fancy Glass Blower.—Philip Shane, charged with being a common drunkard, ascended the bar, with his forehead and shirt-bosom completely encrusted with blood. It is only a week since he was liberated from prison, where he had been confined for fighting. On Saturday night he entered a grocery in Broad street, and seeing some friends sitting round, he generously proposed to treat them to nippers of the spiritual comforter. Having manifested a liberal disposition in entertaining his friends, he attempted to retire without troubling the landlord to cast up the reckoning. Turnpenny, however, hailed him, for the trifle of 9 cents, being the aggregate amount of the 3 three-centers. Philip "was fierce to know if he meant to impach the likes o' him, for a few glasses of small drink." "You may have the liquor free gratis for nothing—and much good may it do ye—if ye'll never darken my door with your drunken mug again," replied the man of weights and measures. "Take the money and be —— to ye, then; and bad luck to us both, if ever I buy another ha'porth of ye, ye burnt match without brumstane, and the devil a frind o' mine shall ye ever sell the matter of a dried onion to, even if I stand to the door to expose ye," said Philip, and suiting the action to the word, he flung down the coppers, and, posting himself at the door, vigorously opposed all access or egress. It was not long before he had boiled up a fine bit of a row in the street, which raged, like a river of pitch on fire, till Shane was arrested and carried to jail.—Three months in the House of Correction.

Resisting a Constable, in the execution of a Civil Process.—Joseph Conner was examined upon a charge of assaulting constable Stowell, who attempted to serve an execution on him, for $2 31 cents. After some difficulty in Conner's house, at South Boston, in which he made a pass at constable Andrews with a pair of tongs, he was finally arrested, by the assistance of the neighbors; but while walking along between the two constables, he twitched suddenly round, and struck Stowell a heavy blow on the neck, which sent him rolling down the bank, like a log of timber, running a race against time. Andrews then clinched Conner more securely, and, after a brief struggle, each embracing the other more firmly than fondly, they both took a roll together in pursuit of poor Stowell. When they reached the base of the declivity, Andrews slackened his gripe a little, and Conner gave him leg bail for security, but forgetting the maxim of festinæ lente, he was for going a-head, right or wrong, without looking behind

"To snatch a fearful joy."

But just as he reached the brow of the hill, "in the full tide of successful experiment," he gave a practical illustration of the proverb of "the more haste the less speed," by kicking his toe against a stone, and stretching his face "prone to the earth." Andrews followed so close upon his heels, as to be tripped up by them in his turn, and formed a heavy upper crust upon him.—Committed for trial at the Municipal Court.

Insulting Ladies in the street.—Henry Rocheford was arrested by the watch, after a desperate struggle, for grossly insulting a respectable lady in the street, by persisting in soliciting her to allow him to accompany her home, and tendering her a gold coin as an inducement. After various fruitless attempts to escape his importunate and insulting attentions, she was compelled to cry "Watch," which brought the requisite assistance. Committed for trial at the Municipal Court.

Almost every thing appears to be flourishing about these days. The weather is excellent—the grass grows—the trees bud—the steamers run—the ladies promenade, and the gentlemen wear straw hats. The Athenæum is thronged—the Last Supper at the Temple admired by every body—the "Grand Menagerie" full of dreadful beasts—the Museums "nice as wax," and the theatres so-so. Money a little scarce—business pretty brisk, and politics high as ever. So we jog on in the Emporium. Some look cross, others good-natured—some are chock full o'fight, others all for peace—some poor, some rich—some gaining, some losing money—some sick, some well—some gratified, some disappointed—thus we are, surrounded by the good and evil of human nature, its ills and its blessings, in about the same proportion as our brethren in the other sections of this wide spread and prosperous nation.

The Journeymen Loaf Bread Bakers of New York have struck for an increase of wages. It appears that they have had to labour on an average from eighteen to twenty hours out of the twenty-four, and have not received more on the average than seven or eight dollars per week; the Trades Union, after mature deliberation, appointed a Committee of five persons to commune with and advise the Bakers relative to the best means to be pursued in order to obtain that which every man is entitled to, a fair equivalent for his labor, and the Journeymen Bakers, with the unanimous sanction of this Committee, have required from their Employers the following, viz: one dollar per barrel for baking, and that nine barrels per week be a fair average for one man's work; to this demand a great many of the employers have assented as just and reasonable.

Miss Kerr's Benefit.—The numerous friends and applauders of the lively little Kerr, will be gratified in having an opportunity this evening of giving her some solid tokens of their favor. As her graceful and spirited dances have invariably been encored and cheerfully repeated by her, it is but fair to presume that she will be handsomely rewarded this evening, both for her professional skill and urbane compliance with the wishes of the audience. On this occasion, Mr Walton, the popular singer, who has been warmly received by the patrons of the Warren, will appear in a couple of favorite nautical characters.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot."—The beneficiary at the Tremont theatre, this evening, should neither be forgotten nor neglected. Mrs Barnes has been on the Boston stage so long that the memory of the present generation runneth not to the contrary.—She is a worthy old lady on the stage, and still more worthy off it. Let her be remembered in both capacities to-night.

Mons. and Madame Canderbeck are re-engaged at the State Museum. The imitations of the former on the violin are truly wonderful.

Four of the Harvard Students have turned States' evidence, and "let the cat out of the bag."

AFFAIR OF HONOR.

"The heroes fought—their seconds charg'd their pistols for attack,
Timmy Twist's with cotton balls, and Billy Boot's with cobler wax;
With their jeers and jokes, a funny hoax, their powder priming, and their paces,
Tho' they'd courage in their hearts, they'd the dishcloth in their faces.
Whack, row de dow, &c.

A duel, or as it is more correctly termed, an affair of honor, took place in this town on Saturday evening last, between Capt. Lang, late of the U. S. army, and Mr Rufus Osborne, a citizen of this place, in consequence of the former's having applied the epithet of "boot-black" to the latter. This insult was too gross to be passed over by Mr Osborn, and as he was too infirm to receive the satisfaction for which his soul panted, in any other way, he resolved to challenge the valiant captain to meet him in a mortal combat, with pistols; consoling himself with the patriotic reflection that if he fell, his death would save the country from any further expense, and on the other hand, if the God of Battles should decree that the life of the captain should be sacrificed to the manes of his departed honor, it would be but "small loss." The ground selected for the affray was on the bank of the St. Mary's River, in the rear of Donevan's Hotel: the parties were placed back to back, and by agreement were to step four paces, and then wheel and fire; but so eager was Mr O. to avenge his wrongs, that at the second step he wheeled and fired.

The Captain, who is an old soldier, having seen service under Gen. Wayne, when this was a military post, of course could not be afraid of the smell of powder, but in his eagerness to return the fire, he placed his finger on the guard of his pistol, and though he pulled with all his might, he could not get it to go off: he says, he felt his adversary's ball graze his shin, and saw it strike the ground near his feet. The second now prepared the pistols for another shot, while the principals wiped off the perspiration which stood in large drops on their blanched visages. This time Mr O. got hold of the guard instead of the trigger, and his pistol would not go off; the Captain snapped his pistol, the percussion cap of which exploded with a slight report, and he anxiously watched to see his adversary fall, feeling confident that he had shot him through the heart. Mr O. acknowledged that it was a narrow escape, as he heard the ball whistle close past his ears. The seconds now interfered, declaring that enough had been done to satisfy the injured honor of Mr Osborne, and that both had behaved like gentlemen, and displayed as much courage as is usual on such occasions. It may perhaps be as well to state that the seconds very prudently omitted to put any ball into the pistols.

"There's many a slip," &c.—On Saturday evening, about 8 o'clock, a young man named Herickson was seen walking in an agitated manner on the Battery, near the Whitehall stairs, when, stopping suddenly, he pulled off his shoes, and placed his hat on one of the seats, and putting a letter into it, he mounted the railings, and threw himself into the river. Not having, in his hurry, divested himself of his cloak, his body was buoyed up by it, and floated towards Castle Garden; but, from having struck against something in falling, he lay perfectly senseless on the surface of the water; a boat was procured and he was taken out and carried into the house of the person who keeps the gate; he bled profusely from the left cheek, but, on application of the proper restoratives, was soon restored to animation, and taken to his boarding house. He is a native of Ireland, and has been from that country about a twelvemonth; he sent over for a young lady to whom he was to have been married, and she and her brother embarked in the James, at Limerick, and were drowned on their passage to Quebec. On the arrival of the afflicting intelligence, he came to this city, and on Friday purposed to destroy himself by poison, but was prevented by the suspicions of his landlady, who substituted another liquid for the opiate. The letter found in his hat was unsealed, and directed to his sister at Limerick. It ran as follows:—

DEAREST MARY—for such you are now that poor Jane is lost to me forever—before this reaches your hands, you will have learnt that Jane is a saint in heaven; yes, she who was the soul of my existence is a dweller in eternity. I go to join her, and long ere your eyes rest on this, his last sad effort, the sun of this world will have set on your unfortunate brother.

My path now lies not with the stream, 'tis wild as Scylla's wave,
And thus 'twill be until I reach the cold and quiet grave,
That yieldeth to the weary heart the rest denied it here,
That hideth every earthly fault—that drieth every tear.

WILLIAM.

This letter, which was blotted with tears, was directed to Miss Mary Herickson, Limerick, Ireland.—N. Y. Trans.

A captain of a militia company a few years since, was sorely puzzled with the phrase "E Pluribus Unum," which was carried in the beak of the American eagle, as painted on a bass drum, which he had procured at second hand, in addition to the drum and fife which before composed the instruments of his band of martial music. A wag, to whom he applied for an explanation, informed him that it was the name of the captain of the company to which the drum had formerly belonged. This was satisfactory, and of course, by the direction of the commander whose honors were now to be sounded forth, the drum was taken to a painter and the objectionable words Pluribus Unum were erased, and other words substituted in their place. For many years after, this drum was carried at the head of the company—the eagle proudly bearing in his beak the scroll to which was attached the significant and euphonious name of the brave E. Jonathan Pilsbury!—Mer. Jour.

Among the passengers which sailed yesterday in the packet ship George Washington, Capt. Holdredge, were Mr and Mrs Wood, the vocalists, who have so often charmed the inhabitants of our Atlantic Cities.—Out of respect, they were accompanied in the steamboat by very many friends, and the full and effective orchestra of the Park Theatre, who delighted all on board with their best Overtures, National Airs &c.—The band on leaving the ship struck up 'Rule Britannia,' and all appeared in order for a speedy voyage, when the boat got under way to return. After a short time however, the rigging of the vessel was partially manned, and signals made for the boat to return, when she immediately put about, all on board in a consternation, as to what could be the matter—the mystery was soon solved—as the boat approached, the cries of Mrs Wood, Mrs Wood were heard, when upon going into the ladies cabin of the steamboat, Mrs W. was found.—It would have been a laughable, though serious joke, should Mrs W. have been neither missed or discovered, till the ship was safe at sea and the boat alongside the wharf.—N. Y. Gaz.

A little girl was sent by her mistress last week to a store, for a yard of "fifteen cent" muslin, and on examining it after her return, the lady thought it very indifferent for the price, and interrogated the little girl if there was not some mistake.

'No, ma'am, there's no mistake. The gentleman ax'd only a levenpenny bit for't, but I told him it would'nt do unless he tuck fifteen cents for it—and then he did!'—Germantown Telegraph.

A Long-settled Pastor.—The Rev. Dr. Perkins, of West Harford, Ct., who is now in his 86th year, has been settled in that place 62 years. In a recent discourse he stated, that he had preached 4000 written and 3000 extemporaneous sermons. He was graduated at Princeton in 1769, and was a classmate of Thomas Jefferson.

Mr Galt, who is, to us and the public, says the London Courier, as one risen from the dead—such was the state of his health a short time ago—is about to publish his "Literary Life and Miscellanies"—which are yet unpublished—by subscription.

The New York and Boston Steamboat Company have declared a dividend of 5 per cent. payable on the 15th inst.

We learn that the Supreme Court of New York hav overruled the exceptions taken to the verdict against Charles Haynes, a case of obtaining goods under false pretences, which we mentioned some time ago—and judgment has been rendered on the same. The result of this trial will teach rogues to beware!—Mer. Jour.

At Lowell on Saturday morning, as Dr. W. Graves was returning home through Central street, a man in a waggon run against his horse, a valuable animal, and seriously wounded it. One of the shafts of the waggon entered the breast of the Doctor's horse and came out at its back, under the saddle. The wound was two feet and two inches in length.

It is said that the recent suspension of the operations in the Bank of Millington, was occasioned by a change in the Board of Directors—which gave dissatisfaction to the Stockholders—and not to the insolvency of the institution. The Bank, it is expected, will resume payment in a few days.—Penn.

Albany Beef.—Tuesday afternoon, a Surgeon, weighing about one hundred pounds, was caught on the flats near South Boston Bridge, by some young men who had been fishing for tom-cod. He was first hooked with a small line, and then beat with a pole and captured after a vigorovs resistance. The water was about 5 feet deep where he was taken.—Trans.

MAYNARD AND NOYES' INK POWDER, AND LIQUID INK.—In 1818, the manufacturers determined to furnish the American public with Ink Powder and Ink, which should satisfy those who apply it to the most important uses in banks, public offices, schools, &c. and succeeded most fully, as the following testimonials will show:

American Bank, Boston, Aug. 18, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—I have been using your black liquid Ink, in this Bank, for two years past, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it superior to any I have heretofore used. Respectfully yours, WM. H. ODIORNE, Cashier.

Boston, May 30th, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—I use no other Ink but yours on the Books of this Institution, and take pleasure in expressing my entire satisfaction with its appearance, and in recommending it to the public as a superior article. Respectfully, your ob't serv't,

THOS. BROWN, Book-keeper, Atlantic Bank.

Register of Deeds' Office, Boston, June 15, 1830.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Having used your Ink about seven years, I have the pleasure of informing you, that it fully answers my expectations; and from the appearance of the Records in my office, I am satisfied that it is superior to any I have ever used.—It flows well and gives a beautiful permanent black. Yours Respectfully, HENRY ALLINE.

Cheshire Bank, Keene, N. H. Jan. 1, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Yours of Dec. 27, was duly received; in reply to which I briefly state, that I have used the Ink-Powder manufactured by you, and no other, for more than ten years last past. I think it makes the best Ink I ever used, and while the quality remains pure, I shall not think of looking for any other kind. Yours, respectfully, N. DANA, Cashier.

Register's Office, New-York, Oct. 25, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Having used your Ink about six years, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it superior to any we have heretofore used, and as such cheerfully recommend it. Respectfully, your obedient servants, JAMES McMURRAY, DAVID GLAD, GEORGE MORTIMER.

Patriotic Bank, Washington City, April 10, 1824.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—For the last year I have been using your Black Ink. I have been much pleased with it, and have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are desirous of giving permanency to their writing. O. CARR, Cashier.

Bank of Michigan, Detroit, July 5, 1830.

We have used Ink, prepared from Messrs. Maynard & Noyes' Ink-Powder, for several years past, and are quite satisfied with it. It flows easily from the pen and has a brilliancy and permanency of color which are not commonly found in other Ink.

C. C. TROWBRIDGE, Cashier.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

We are sorry to have to add to the above testimonials the evidence of Counterfeiters, who, by selecting it for imitation, declare their opinion that it stands foremost in commanding a ready and extensive sale. To enable purchasers to distinguish the genuine from the counterfeit, and thus protect themselves from the fraud, the manufacturers have adopted a new label, composed of interminglied colors of black and red.

Sold by the manufacturers, Nos. 13 and 15, Cornhill, Boston, and by Booksellers, Stationers, Hardware Merchants and Traders generally throughout the United States. tf—april 1

HIGH STREET HOSPITAL AND BOARDING HOUSE, FOR THE SICK AND LAME.—DR. E. SMITH takes this method to inform his friends and the public, that he has taken that large and pleasant house, No 54 High street, between Federal and Atkinson streets, for the accommodation of the Sick and Lame, who may apply to him for help, upon the following CONDITIONS.

1. Nothing of a poisonous nature shall be given, on any occasion whatever; such as quicksilver under the names of mercury, calomel corrosive sublimate, arsenic, antimony, nitre, opium, laudanum, &c. No blistering, bleeding, steaming, or pouring cold water.

2. For boarding men, $3 per week, women, $2 per week, exclusive of washing.

3. For one course of medicine, $2,50; some deduction from the above, if paid in advance. Advice gratis.

4. All persons who come without recommendations from others that can be relied on, must obtain security if required, or pay a certain sum in advance.

5. Money due for board must be paid every other week, unless an arrangement is made to the contrary, upon certain conditions.

6. No person received to be attended, to be out later than ten o'clock at night, or drink spirituous liquors.

7. People (who live in the city or country) who come to be attended once, and stay one or two nights, to pay $3 for board and attendance.

8. Those who come or send their children or friends, may depend upon their being treated in a faithful and friendly manner.

The following are among the many diseases which have been and may be cured with the Vegetable Medicines:—Ague in the face, pain in the Ears, Eyes Inflamed, recent Deafness, Catarrh, Dropsy, Swelled Neck, loss of speech, King's Evil, Lock Jaw, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Rheumatism, Consumptive Complaints, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Palsy, Piles, Tape Worm, Jaundice, Cholic, Cholera, Salt Rheum, Stranguary internal Bleeding, Chilblains, Itch, Leprosy, Female Complaints generally with many others, too numerous to mention here.

PATENT FOR THE U. STATES.—Mott's Patent Medicated and Champoo Baths, and Systematic Vegetable Medicine. These baths are well known to the medical faculity as being patronized by the most eminent Physicians of Europe and Asia, and are considered in the Oriental Empires as the greatest luxury they enjoy, being a preventive as well as a cure of contagious diseases—and they are now introduced in the United States in a new and perfect form, and with the greatest confidence of success. These Baths are medicated according to the disease—they are now open to the public, and will be administered to families or individuals, under the direction, or according to the prescription of their physician.

Dr. Mott will undertake the cure (or the relief) of all Chronic Diseases, Wounds, (however of long standing,) Ulcers, Abscesses, internal or external, Gout, Rheumatism, Tic Doloroux, Cancers, Imposthumes, and other complaints incident to the human frame.

Dr. M. will personally superintend the various Baths, and attend to the prescriptions of the Medical Gentlemen in behalf of their patients.

Without boasting of the cures that have been performed, or pretending to any wonderful knowledge, he would merely say, he would be happy to render the Baths, and the system of Medicine itself, useful to the high Medical Talent of Boston, leaving it to an enlightened public to decide.

Those spacious premises have been fitted up with great expense, at the corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets, and other places have been purchased to be fitted up as auxiliary establishments. It may be proper to state, that no mercury or mineral preparations are used—no hot medicines, or cold water—but it is, in fact, a union of the simples of the Materia Medica with the Herbal Medica—therefore called Vegetable.

Teeth and Corns, he will undertake to extract scientifically; Bunions on the joints, compound or cancerous Toe Nails, and other diseases of the Feet, diseases of the Eyes, &c.

Male Patients only attended to by me. Mrs. Mott, the Females and Children. No out door cases can be attended to.

N. B. Agents may purchase Patent Rights for villages, towns, or cities, in any part of the United States, with a guarrntee exclusive—together with the Medicines and Book of Directions, by application to DR. MOTT, corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets. tf jan 21

INDIA RUBBER CLOTHING.—Water Proof India Rubber Garments of every description, among which are long Surtouts, ¾ Pea Coats, Frocks, Pantaloons, Capes, Camlet Cloaks, and Frock Coats, with the Rubber inside. Trowsers with shoes attached to them for wading, Caps, Gloves, &c. Also, Life Belts, Air Cushions, Gas Bags, &c &c., all made without sewing and warranted to be alike unaffected by water, heat or cold, and perfectly impervious to the air. Ready made, or made to order wholesale and retail by J. MARINER, No 7 Congress square.

The cloths from which these articles are made, are manufactured only at the Roxbury India Rubber Factory.

Great improvement has of late been made in the covering of the cloths, and in the manufacture of the garments, and from the known qualities of the India Rubber, as well as from the numerous testimonies in favor of these goods, by those who have given them a fair trial, they are recommended to the public with the utmost confidence that they will perfectly answer the purpose for which they are designed.

Stage Drivers, Sportsmen, Seamen, Firemen, Travellers, and all others exposed to the wet, will find such protection from the use of the India Rubber Garments, as can be obtained from nothing else. may 9

THOMPSON'S INFIRMARY, corner of Mount Vernon and Charles streets, opposite Rev. Dr. Sharp's Meeting House.—The subscriber tenders his grateful acknowledgments to the enlightened public, for the liberal patronage bestowed on his Infirmary, since its establishment in April, 1832—in which he has administered upwards of 2000 courses of Medicine, to more than 1500 patients, residing from 6 rods to 600 miles distant, in every state and stage of disease—the greater part of whom have been cured. Patients, given over to die at the New York, Philadelphia, Massachusetts, New Brunswick and Insane Hospitals, have been cured at my Infirmary. ONE (and only one) DEATH has occurred at my Infirmary, since its establishment—and $1000 is here offered to any individual who will prove the contrary! Also, $1000 to any individual who will prove as great an amount of business to have been accomplished during the same time, at any Hospital in Europe or America, with the occurrence of a less number of deaths, and more cures—notwithstanding a great proportion of my patients had been surrendered, by the Hospitals or the regular faculty, to the kind embrace of the "Grim Tyrant," before I saw them!

Many certificates of desperate cases cured, have been published (and more will soon be added) in pamphlet form, to be had at the Infirmary. For the benefit of the public, a few names will here be given, by way of reference:—Peter R. Jones—bound hand and foot nine days, and literally dissected by the British surgeons—transferred to the Massachusetts General Hospital, where he was pronounced incurable without another dissection, to which he preferred the loss of life—cured at my Infirmary by 4 courses of Medicine: now Thomsonian Physician at Calais, Me. James Norris—after the most acute suffering for more than 3 years, under the care of the first Doctors in Cambridge, and the celebrated Dr. Ingalls, of Boston—cured (like all others hereafter mentioned) at my Infirmary: now Thompsonian Physician, Infirmary on the Battle Ground of Lexington, Mass. Charles Gardner, cripple, cured: now Thompsonian Physician at Swanzy, near Fall River, Mass. S. Sprague—pronounced incurable by the oldest M. D.'s in Boston—also it is stated in Good's practice, that no man was ever cured of the same disease in any nation, so far as his knowledge extended—cured by 3 courses of Medicine in 1 week: now Thompsonian Physician, Infirmary, Lowell, Mass. Asa McCollum, cured: now Thompsonian Physician, Infirmary, Leicester, Mass.—Sumner Nash—Dyspepsia, worst type—cured by Thompsonian Medicine: Thompsonian Physician, Williamsburg, Mass.—Benj. Parker, Malden—his wife cured of Scrofula and Rheumatic fever, by 3 courses in 5 days. Joel Wright, Spencer, Mass. Asthma, 20 years standing, cured December, 1832, by 2 courses of Medicine, and no relapse to this date. Samuel Edgerly, Boston—5 years constant salivation by the fumes of mercury, inhaled while employed in his business—attended by Dr Shattuck, five weeks, without the least benefit, cured in one day. Newton, Allbright, Newbane, Niagara county, New York—Dyspepsia, worst type—cured. L. Merrill, Concert Hall, Boston—Pleurisy fever—worst kind, cured. S. Adams, Boston, aged 75, rhematism, &c. cured in 5 hours, by 1 course of medicine. Jonathan Warren, Leicester, Ms. aged 61, Consumption, Dyspepsia, &c., cured by 2 courses. A Lady—deplorable state of mental derangement, attended by the celebrated Dr Shattuck, and by him pronounced beyond the reach of medical aid, and advised that she be immediately removed to the Insane Hospital, or Mad House, Pepperell, Mass.—cured in one week, and married in three months—reference for this cure, Cyrus Winkly; Lydia Felton, 652 Washington st; Lucy Smith, Haverhill, Massachusetts; —Ann Howarth, Andover, Mass.; Charles Gardner, Fall River, R. I.; Mrs Ruth Caryl, 107 Pleasant st. boarders at the Infirmary, N. Dearborn, Boston—desperate case of Inflammation of the Bowels and Stranguary, pronounced by the Regulars of Boston, Piles—cured. Mr Cram, Boston—Hip Complaint—attended a long time by Dr Haywood of Boston, without the least benefit, and pronounced by them certain death if he applied to Thompson—champood 3 times by the celebrated Dr Mott, which produced a violent discharge of blood from the head each time—life saved and health restored by Thompsonian Medicine, agreeably to his own declaration, this day made.—Mr Patten, Boston, consumption—cured: Mrs Patten, of various female complaints, after being attended by the celebrated Dr Haywood, without the least benefit—cured at my Infirmary in one day. Mr Ames, Boston—yellow fever, fever and ague, cough, &c. 9 months' continuance—cured by 4 courses, and no symptoms of fever and ague after the first course. Young man in Mt. Vernon st. upwards of 20 years old, subject to frequent fits from his youth—cured more than a year ago by 3 courses of medicine, and not a fit since.

Of all the cases of Asiatic Cholera which have occurred in Boston, I have attended about one half, without the loss of a single patient, although I have not heard of a single patient saved, who was attended by the Cholera Hospital Doctors.

The Infirmary includes one half of the entire block of buildings on Mount Vernon street, with sufficient accommodations for patients and their friends from the country. The business of the Infirmary has become so extensive, and calls to visit patients abroad are so frequent, that I find myself in want of a Copartner—a gentleman of good character, correct habits and perseverance. To such an one, a good chance is now offered. A gentleman with a small family would be preferred.

The demand for Thompsonian practitioners is continually increasing, and students can be admitted at the Infirmary on reasonable terms. A good English education, moral character, and common sense, are all the qualifications requisite for admission.

A general assortment of Thompsonian Medicines. Also, Robinson's Lectures; Family Rights, Dr Samuel Thompson's Narrative, and New Guide to Health, constantly for sale at the Infirmary. BENJAMIN THOMPSON, Botanic Physician.

DR. WARNER'S PURIFYING VEGETABLE POWDERS, Or FAMILY BITTERS—yielding its strength to Wine or water.

As a security against counterfeits, the label will be signed by the wholesale agent, PARKER BARNES. Likewise the steel plate will be observed, as there is a spurious article, which has been offered to the public.

In the spring of the year, every one is troubled more or less with a propensity to sleep, and by the use of this corrective it can be obviated entirely. For purifying and eradicating all kinds of humors from the blood, even if they appear externally in the face, or any part of the body, it is much better and far more efficacious than any external application; in fact I seldom knew it to fail proving effectual. The patient will find it operates more in the blood than any other preparation they ever referred to; it is far better than salts, sulphur, cream tarter, or any other preparation of this kind, for when the blood is once purified with this corrective, it remains in an even temperature through the summer months. For a foul stomach, jaundice, general debility, weakness of limbs, want of appetite, billious and liver complaints, headach, stupor, &c. For the catarrh, which is generally occasioned by the impure state of the blood, there is nothing extant that has proved so efficacious as this purifying corrective. For all the above complaints it is seldom known to fail in proving an effectual remedy.

It is really worth the public attention, as every one is aware of the unpleasant, dull, heavy feeling, which the spring of the year produces; and by the use of this corrective, it can be obviated entirely. Every one who makes use of the above preparation, will be astonished at the mild and gentle effect it has on the blood.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify, that I have been troubled in the spring and summer seasons with a dull and stupid feeling, which very much troubled me while about my business, and by taking some of Warner's Purifying Powders, I have found it a perfect remedy, and with confidence recommend it to others who may be similarly affected. ELIAS PIKE.

Boston, April 16th, 1832.

Joseph Moore, of Boston, certifies that he has taken Warner's Famil: Corrective, or Purifying Powder for purifying the blood, and curing of jaundice, and likewise removing the propensity to sleep, and has found it an effectual remedy.

April 1st, 1832.

I hereby certify that I have taken Warner's Vegetable Purifying Powders for the cure of the jaundice; likewise for purifying the blood, and removing the propensity for sleep which I am always troubled with in the spring of the year. From the benefit which I have received for the above complaints, I cordially recommend it to all that may be similarly affected. JOHN B. FINN.

Feeling grateful for the benefit which I have received from taking Dr Warner's Vegetable Bitters, for the cure of the jaundice, weakness of the limbs, want of appetite, indigestion, &c. do recommend it as a safe and efficacious remedy for the above complaints. P. COFFIN.

Boston, March 1, 1833.

Other reference to its efficacy may be had by calling on the agent. To be had at wholesale of my sole agent in this city, PARKER BARNES, No 424 Washington street, and retailed by all the principal Druggists, in Boston and vicinity. a116mo

IRON SAFES.—S. A. & W. G. PIERCE, Agents for selling Gaylor's Patent Double Fire Proof Wrought Iron Chests and Safes, 370 Washington-street, have now on hand a large assortment, comprising all the sizes and kinds which are calculated for the use of Banks, Insurance Offices, Town Records, Merchants, and others.

The above Chests are double throughout in all their parts, with double doors, each secured with Chubb's Patent Detector Locks, which cannot be picked; and the Chests are as completely Fire Proof as any vault or chest can be made. Proof of which can be seen by those who will take the trouble to call at the Agent's Store and examine a Double Chest which has passed through a very severe fire, and preserved a valuable lot of books and papers, belonging to John S. Abbott, Esq., whose name is attached to the following certificate:

"This is to certify, that one of the above described Double Safes, which I purchased of the Messrs. S. A. & W. G. Pierce was in my office in this town when the office was burned on the 2d day of November last—the building was of two stories, wooden, and large. The Safe, weighing 700 lbs. fell from the second story into the cellar, and was exposed to an intense heat for nearly three hours. It was for a long time literally red hot. It contained all the account books, notes, and courtpapers, that were in my office; and no paper was in the least degree burnt or rendered illegible. JOHN S. ABBOTT.

Thomaston, January 8th, 1834."

The above Chest, and some of the papers which were in it at the time of the fire, are now at the Agents' store, corner of Essex and Washington streets, and any individual or corporation who are about purchasing Iron Safes for the protection of their books and papers, will find it for their advantage to call and examine them, and they will be perfectly satisfied that Gaylor's Double Safes are what they are represented to be—FIRE PROOF! and they will be still further satisfied that none other but the Double Safe would stand a severe fire.

Gaylor's Double Safes are a Patent article, and can only be legally purchased in this city of S. A. & W. G. PIERCE, who are his authorized Agents. tf—jan 31

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints; weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pains over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain attended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks, I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, to be a very valuable medicine.

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half: and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr., No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John I. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer street, Boston; Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown; E. G. Lemon, Roxbury. f 8 eoptyf

BLACKING,—Liquid, Paste, and Sponge—also a leather preservative, comprising all the kinds now in use, are manufactured and for sale at the Blacking Establishment, head of the Western Avenue.

KNAPP'S JAPAN LIQUID BLACKING, three sizes in stone jugs. The proprietor has the pleasure to inform the public that from long experience in the business, he has been able to make great improvements in the article, so much so, it is believed, no other kind approaches near it in quality, with the exception of Day & Martin's, which by many is not considered so good. A small quantity, made expressly for retailing, now on hand, and offered to the public on reasonable terms—warranted to give the most entire satisfaction. The smallest orders gratefully received.

KNAPP'S CONDENSED OIL PASTE BLACKING, is offered as above, by the single box, dozen, or cask. This article is pronounced by the most competent and disinterested judges to be superior to any other kind now known in this market; and warranted to give satisfaction, or money refunded to the purchaser. It is prepared with oil, and its shining qualities are believed to be unequalled. It will be sold on liberal terms, and to wholesale dealers in the article, the discount will be satisfactory.

KNAPP'S JAPAN SPONGE BLACKING, for sale as above, by the barrel, gallon, or dozen. It is sufficient to say of this article, it sustains the highest reputation of any article of the kind manufactured in this part of the country, and it is the intention of the manufacturer to spare no pains or expense in the preparation of the same.

KNAPP'S LEATHER PRESERVATIVE, for sale as above, (indispensable to every man who regards his health or economy.) First, it renders the leather impervious to water, also makes it soft and pliable, and of course prevents it from cracking which is the first symptom of decay in leather. It is believed that one pair of boots with this article applied properly, will wear as long as two with nothing of the kind used on them; and for the preservation of leather, should be used in summer as well as winter. july 22

MARSHALL'S FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, for the cure of Obstinate Eruptions of the Skin, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Biles which arise from an impure habit of body, Scaly Eruptions, Pains in the bones, Chronic Rheumatism, Tetter, Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Syphilitic Symptons, and all disorders arising from an impure state of the blood, produced either by a long residence in a hot and unhealthy climate, the injudicious use of mercury, &c.

It has been a desideratum with Physicians and patients, to obtain an active preparation of Sarsaparilla in a convenient and portable form. Since Dr. Hancock's publication in the London Medico Botanical Transactions and Mr. Hodgson's recent Paper in the Journal of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy—denying the efficacy, and asserting the inertness of any Decoctions, Syrups, or Compound Fluid Extracts made by long and continued boiling; I have been induced to prepare a Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, by a process peculiar to myself; and, aided by a powerful hydraulic press, have succeeded in obtaining a more efficient and active preparation than has ever heretofore been manufactured.

This very convenient and active Syrup is now with confidence offered to the Medical Profession and the public, as possessing in an eminent degree all the active properties of the Sarsaparilla in its most concentrated form.

One pint of the Syrup thus prepared contains the active principle of two pounds of Sarsaparilla. One fluid ounce is equal in strength to one quart of the decoction of the London Pharmacopœia or the Lisbon Diet Drink.

This article possesses an agreeable and pleasant flavor—and the most delicate and fastidious stomach will bear it conveniently.

PATENT CORK FOR COLLARS AND SADDLES.—The American Cork Company offer for sale, ground or grated Cork for stuffing Horse Collars and Saddles. The utility of the article has been fully tested, the past year, in a great number of cases where horses' breasts had become sore and inflamed by the use of the ordinary collars.

It has been proved beyond a doubt, to surpass every other substance that has yet been known or used for that purpose.—The fact that it will not become matted, and is a non-conductor of heat, must convince every person of its value. But one farther advantage is, these Collars fit the breast of a horse immediately on their application, which is not the case with any other material. A certificate as to the utility of the article, is subjoined.

"We the subscribers, having made or used the Cork Horse Collars, made from ground or grated Cork, are fully satisfied that they surpass collars made of hair, wool, or any other substance whatever that we have been acquainted with, for the following reasons:—First, the elasticity is sufficient; secondly, it being a non-conductor of heat, does not heat the breast as all other substances do; thirdly, it fits itself to any horse's breast immediately on its application; and fourthly, it has cured every horse's breast we have applied it to, or known it to be done."

Boston, Sept. 3d, 1833.

The article is manufactured at the Company's Warehouse, Head of the Western Avenue, Boston; put up in sacks of 10, 15, and 20 lbs. each, and sold by DAVID LEWIS, dealer in Saddlery Hardware, No. 38 Kilby-st. HENRY KNAPP, General Agent for the United States. eopitf—mar 25

POSITIVE, OR NO PAY.—Mrs. Hill's Cough Drops, or Vegetable Health Restorative.—Prepared entirely from Vegetables.

More than forty years have now elapsed since the receipt was given me by my uncle, a celebrated Physician, at a time that I was troubled with a very bad cough and cold. After taking one dose, I found immediate relief, and a few doses cured me entirely; the effects were astonishing quick, and the numerous instances of the wonderful efficacy of these drops on different people, has induced me to put them up in Phials, with directions, under the impression it would be a public benefit. And as that is my sole aim—and to convince the public that is all, and as a sure guarantee against quackery and deception, I authorise my agents to return the money to all those that do not get relief by their returning the bottle and directions. The relief and absolute cure, particularly of these numerous and complicated disorders arising from neglected colds, is amply attested by the acknowledged approbation of those who are now restored to perfect health, as well as many in the decline of life who frankly acknowledge having received great relief from the use of them in the following diseases, viz:—Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Influenza, Quinsea, Phthisic, Croup, and all disorders arising from colds. Price 37½ cents per bottle.

For sale wholesale and retail by J. P. Hall, Jr. sole agent, No. 1 Union street, corner of Elm street; Asahel Boyden, Hancock street; Charles Holbrook, Leverett street; E. S. Holden, corner of Bencon and Charles streets; A. Geyer, Hanover st.; John White, Jr. School st.

THE GIFTED LADY.—MRS. MOTT, Female Physician, would inform her patients and the public in general, that she has located herself in Boston, at the corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets, where she will continue to administer her Systematic Vegetable Medicines, to those who are desirous of cure in all the complaints incident to the human frame.

The Patent Champoo, and Medicated Baths, in connexion with the Medicines, will be under her direction, for Females, and will be in daily operation—to those who are acquainted with these invaluable Baths, nothing may be said of their praise; to those who are not, one trial will convince of their utility. The Baths will be open at all times, to the patients of Physicians, under their prescriptions.

To be had as above, Josephine Dentrifice, for whitening the teeth. The Tooth Paste, for preserving them, and tightening the gums, Corn Liquid, with directions; Wort Ointment; Liver Salve; Chilblain Liquid and Salve; Tooth Ache Drops; Tic Doloroux Embrocation; Head-Ache Drops; Bunion Embrocation; Strengthening Powders, and Stomachic Bitters. tf jan 21

BRONZE LAMPS.—S. A. & W. G. PIERCE have just received another invoice of Bronze Lamps, comprising a splendid assortment, both rich and common, which they offer at very low prices. COMPOUND CHLORINE TOOTH WASH for Cleansing and Preserving the Teeth and Gums, and Cleansing the Mouth.

THE CHLORINE TOOTH WASH effectually cleanses the Teeth, and will answer the purposes of the best dentifrice. It contains no acid, or any ingredient which can in any case be injurious. It will also be found to keep the brush itself free from all impurities.

The Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash has the further advantage of cleansing the mouth also—and of removing whatever is offensive in the breath. It hardens the gums and is a valuable remedy for canker or soreness of the mouth. It may also be used with the greatest advantage as a gargle for sore throat. In fine, it preserves the teeth and mouth in all respects in a clean and healthy condition. It is agreeable to the taste. Gentlemen who are in the habit of using tobacco, will find that the tooth wash will speedily remove all the effects of it from the mouth.

That the public may rest assured of the very salutary effects of this composition, the following recommendations from gentlemen of the highest respectability are submitted.

From J. W. Webster, M. D. Erving Professer of Chemistry in Harvard University.

Harvard University, Cambridge, March 14, 1831.

Messrs. Lowe & Reed. Gentlemen—I have examined the Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash received from you, and have no hesitation in stating my belief that it will answer the purpose for which you have compounded it. I have discovered in it no ingredient which can prove injurious to the teeth.

Yours, &c. J. W. WEBSTER.

From Sylvanus Plympton, M D.

Messrs. Lowe & Reed. Gentlemen—I have frequently administered your Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash in various affections of the mouth and throat—and relief has been immediate and permanent. In a neuralgic affection of the face and head, arising from a depraved state of the gums and defective teeth, which resisted many powerful, approved medicines, this Wash acted like a charm. I hesitate not to give it my entire approbation for the purposes for which it was made, and consider it one of the most safe, pleasant, and effectual articles of the kind ever offered to the public.

I am yours, &c. S PLYMPTON.

Cambridge, Dec. 9, 1831.

From Mr. A. A. Hayes, Operative Chemist and Superintendent of the Roxbury Chemical Works.

Messrs. Lowe & Reed. Gentlemen—Having examined the bottle of Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash you gave me, and become acquainted with its composition, it affords me pleasure to express my belief, that it well deserves the high reputation it has acquired.—It does not contain any substance in solution or suspension, which can either chemically or mechanically injure the teeth, and observation and experience confirm the opinion that its effects on the mouth are salutary and very agreeable. With respect, A. A. HAYES.

A SUPERIOR ARTICLE FOR SHAVING. SAPONACEOUS COMPOUND. For sale by MAYNARD & NOYES, Agents, 13 Cornhill. M. & N. are happy to say that the testimony of many gentlemen in this city and vicinity correspond fully with the following recommendation from Dr. Reese, of New-York.

August 5, 1830. I have used the "Saponaceous Compound" of Mr. Prentiss, and find it more pleasant to the face, than any of the shaving soaps I have ever employed, either foreign or domestic. I have no occasion for warm water, and the operation of shaving has lost with me half its inconvenience, since I availed myself of this useful invention. As a mild emolient, and soothing application to the skin, I highly esteem it, and recommend it to my patients as a medicament in cutaneous diseases. Respectfully yours. D. M. REESE.
